

SOME PEOPLE NEVER FEAR the shadows, they just take advantage of the light that must be shining nearby! For instance, tragically deafened you have the great classical composer, Ludwig van Beethoven; poor, over 65 years old you have Colonel Sanders, who was to begin the Kentucky Fried Chicken chain; raised in severe poverty, and you have Abraham Lincoln; call him 'a slow learner,' with no future and you have genius Albert Einstein; cripple him and you have Sir Walter Scott; put him in prison and you have John Bunyon; subject him to severe religious prejudice and you have Benjamin Disraeli; born blind you have the composer Fanny Crosby; none of them feared the shadows of their birth and life. Jesus did not come to do away with suffering, he did not come to explain it, but he came to fill it with his presence. That's why Easter; that's why we have hope regardless of our age, failures and disabilities! Don't hide — live in resurrection life!
