OUR SUCCESS SHOULD BUILD OTHERS

Successful living is unselfish. It should always launch others into a higher orbit of living and achievement. Wise judgement, good fortune, relevant education, opportunity - what is the base for success? Proverbs states God is the source of all wisdom - 'the rain falls on the just and the unjust,' says Jesus. If we openly live our experience, and share our learning, our generosity will breed more success in us, and others. Then new opportunities others would not have attained on their own initiative are created by our successes. They can then choose to grow from our positive experiences. A life lived in itself, is a life unfulfilled! Unless a seed is buried in the ground and germinates, it serves no purpose - our success can be sterile. If it sprouts, it will reproduce seeds, and ever expanding success! It's our choice, David Rodway.
