‘WHAT DOES THE DASH BETWEEN THE NUMBERS MEAN?’

We were looking at tombstones. ‘The numbers mean date of birth, and death’, I said. The dash covers life inbetween – joys and sadness, successes and failures, peace and turmoil, love and hate, positives and negatives, lies and truth, friends and enemies and much more. Everyone starts with a fresh page, and the power of choice! The good thing is we also have an eraser when mistakes are made. Words like sorry, I did not mean that, please forgive me. Attitudes which make the interests and thoughts of others worth more than a casual, hurried hearing make my dash important to their dash. However the dash of Jesus is vital to the dash of everyone. He died to erase the bad parts of our dash and give us the best dash possible! Believing this is our choice. David Rodway
