OOPS, SORRY ABOUT THAT.

What words flow from us when the 'sorry' is directed towards us? What's the tone of our voice in reply? Responses vary according to the level of our tiredness, what happened in the earlier part of the day, whether the event was a real accident or intentional or a clumsy action and who said the sorry. Regardless, our reaction showcases our 'heart'. What's driving us and whether its good, bad or ugly becomes public. Jesus Christ said out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. Living out the goodness of God day by day – whatever is true, honest, just, pure – ensures faith tests of the 'oops' kind are handled better. Perfection is yet to come, but as Jesus said I came so you can have a better life. A life in fact beyond your wildest dreams! That's the choice to make! David Rodway.
