WHAT DO OTHERS SAY ABOUT YOU?

Recently I took two funerals four days apart. One was attended by more than five hundred the other had two – the Director and myself. The difference was not obviously the age, culture, fame or geography, but the lives lived! One was well spoken of by family and friends where genuine outpouring of grief remembered the giving, and generous nature. At the other, no one spoke of the deceased, and even BC resident family refused to attend. Our life is like a seed sown which unless it falls into the ground and dies it cannot reproduce. The more we are prepared to ungrudgingly give of ourselves to others the more our life influences others. Proverbs say the generous person is made rich, they sow yet increase more, and there is one who withholds more than is right – this leads to poverty. Jesus said give and it shall be given back to you – sow sparingly and you will reap sparingly. The choice is ours. That's new beginnings. David Rodway.
